Composed in the years leading up to WWII and performed by the children of the Terezín concentration camp, Brundibár is a timeless musical fable of innocence triumphing over evil. Sung in English, this production features projected English super titles, and serves as a perfect introduction to opera. Brundibár is presented by the Sacramento Children's Chorus and Sacramento Youth Symphony, with production support by the Sacramento Opera. In collaboration with the Central Valley Holocaust Educators' Network and the Jewish Community Relations Council.

Featuring a special guest appearance by original Terezín cast member, Ela Stein Weissberger.
